Severe Weather Awareness Week

Severe Weather Awareness Week - 2019

April 22–26, 2019 has been designated Severe Weather Awareness Week in South Dakota. With the approach of warmer weather, it is important to remind BHSU Faculty, Staff and Students to take a moment to review our emergency procedures for severe weather.

In the event of developing weather conditions that could potentially spawn severe weather, the National Weather Service will issue either a Severe Thunderstorm Watch or a Tornado Watch. A Watch means that atmospheric conditions exist for severe weather to develop.

If the National Weather Service upgrades a Watch to a Warning, it means that severe storm conditions exist and that you should take shelter immediately.

Severe weather advisories will be broadcast on local radio and television stations. If you hear that a Severe Weather Watch has been issued for your general area, you should stay alert to weather conditions and be ready to seek shelter. If a Tornado Warning is issued civil defense sirens will be sounded in a non-broken continuous tone that will last up to 3-minutes in duration.

At the sounding of a Severe Weather Warning, take cover in a basement or interior room of your home. If you live in a mobile home, leave at once and seek another shelter. If you are located in a public building go to a lower interior area of the building. Use stairways and avoid the use of elevators. If you are outdoors, seek shelter in a ditch or low area on the ground. Avoid positioning yourself near trees, power lines and telephone poles. If you are in a motor vehicle do not attempt to outrun the tornado, stop, exit the vehicle immediately and seek shelter away from your vehicle. For campus emergency shelter locations, see the information below.

Tornadoes are rare in this area but can and do happen here. We all need to be alert to the weather conditions, act quickly when a tornado is detected, and remain calm. You and your family should know in advance what to do if the civil defense warnings are issued.

State-wide Tornado Drills will be conducted on Wednesday April 24, 2019 sometime between 9 a.m. & 9:15 a.m.

Campus Emergency Shelter locations:

Meier Hall – 1st floor away from the doors and any windows.

Woodburn Hall - 1st floor away from the doors or the Library 1st floor.

Geek Speak: Noise-Makers: Fascists and Music

Please join us for the final faculty-led Geek Speak with Dr. Alex Lang: "Noise-Makers: Fascists and Music" Thursday, April 25 at 4:00 p.m. in Jonas 110.

The German philosopher Walter Benjamin remarked that fascism turned politics into art. And music was no exception.
While the association of Nazism and Hitler with Wagner is famous, the history of fascists and music goes far beyond German opera.
Even today, fascism is explicitly present in various sub-genres of European metal and punk music.
This talk will examine how various musicians representing high, experimental, and pop art all found ways to either embrace or accommodate themselves to fascist regimes and ideologies.
We will listen to excerpts from a variety of compositions and songs and explore how music could communicate fascism.

Tri the Pie

The BHSU Tri the Pie is divided into three slices (disciplines) – SWIM, BIKE and RUN held over three concurrent days.

This format allows athletes to focus in on each leg of the triathlon race, creating an opportunity for a truly dialed in performance.

Held early in the racing season, it is a great way to see how your training is progressing.

For athletes new to triathlons, it is a chance to experience each discipline in a lower pressure environment- no need to worry about those pesky transitions!

This format also allows single sport athletes to get in on the fun, ensuring plenty of competition on each day of racing.

Sign up for one race, two races, or the WHOLE PIE TRI today!

750m Strawberry Swim Friday, April 26 5:30 PM
BHSU Pool

20K Banana Crème Bike Saturday, April 27 9:00 AM
Spearfish Canyon

5K Rhubarb Run Sunday, April 28 9:00 AM
BHSU Young Center

Pre-register online or by mail by 4/20/19. Onsite registration will be available at each race starting 1 hour prior to race time for an additional fee. $20 per event or $50 for all three with pre-registration.
