Announcements

Snow Removal

A special thank-you to Facilities Services staff for working on a holiday to make sure the campus was cleaned and ready for us to come back to class and work on Tuesday! With constant melting and refreezing, there will be icy patches despite efforts to sand and salt. Please wear smart shoes and walk carefully!

Internship Opportunity - Sales with DishONE

A representative from Dish One, who is a BHSU Alum, will be visiting campus on Wednesday, February 28th. They are doing a short presentation to promote their one of a kind summer Sales Internship program. Dr. Bobbi Looney has invited him to attend her class. We are looking for other opportunities for him to speak with students and faculty. If you are a student and would like to schedule a one on one chat with Dish One to learn about this amazing opportunity OR if you are a faculty member and see the benefit in having Dish One speak to your class, please reach out to Hans Nelson, Director of Corporate Relations.

Geek Speak: "A little more than kin and less than kind."

Please join us for this week's Geek Speak on Thursday, February 22 at 4:00 in Jonas 305: Dr. Amy Fuqua will present, "A little more than kin and less than kind."

The Bantu people of Nigeria say, "Umuntu ngumuntu ngabantu," a human being is human because of other human beings. The Lakota people of High Plains of North American say, "Mitakuye Oyasin," we are all related. This project will examine the idea of relation across religious and cultural traditions.

(BONUS! Dr. Fuqua will host an encore Geek Speak at the Jacket Zone at 617 Main St. on Friday, February 23, at 4:00 p.m. Join us at either location on either day.)
