BHSU hits the slopes

Next time you ski Terry Peak watch for BHSU banners, flags, posters and videos. Who knows, you may even spot Sting on the slopes!

This is the third year of BHSU's partnership with Terry Peak, where we have the opportunity to introduce BHSU to prospective students and their parents from across the region and beyond. We've hosted some great events, met with a lot of prospective and current students and reminisced with alums.

Are you interested in a creative writing minor?

The Black Hills State English Department is currently working on a proposal for a minor in creative writing.

To help us justify this program addition, we are conducting a survey of BHSU students to determine interest.

If you might have an interest in this program, won't you please take a moment to select one of the following options in this linked poll at the bottom of the page?

- I would have interest in a creative writing minor.
- I would have strong interest in a creative writing minor.
- I would add the minor if it were offered.
