Active Shooter Response - What Would You Do??

Active shooter incidents are often unpredictable and evolve quickly. These types of incidences are on the increase and statistics show that the more individuals trained in how to respond during an active shooter incident, the safer the community can be. BHSU Public Safety will be offering 4 (1-hour) sessions on options-based active shooter response. Learn how to develop a "survival mind-set", identify suspicious or concerning behavior and what options exist if you are ever confronted with an active shooter situation. Training can replace panic with effective action.

What: Active Shooter Response - What Would You Do??

When: Wednesday March 21st - 4pm & 5:30 pm

Wednesday April 4th - 6pm & 7:30 pm

Where: Club Buzz

Door Prizes: 3 lucky student attendees at each session will win a 50% discount on a 2018-19 academic year parking permit!

Geek Speak: The Global Commons: Food Safety Concerns

Please join us on Thursday, March 15, at 4:00 p.m. in Jonas 110 for our next Geek Speak featuring Dr. Jama Khainzan, Presidential Fellow, with The Global Commons: Food Safety Concerns.

Dr. Khainzan is a public health education professional with extensive experience in nutrition and food safety education, and has used her expertise to develop policies and programs in Mongolia and internationally. At BHSU, Khainzan works with both the International relations and Global Engagement office and the President's office. In her Geek Speak, Khanizan will blend her expertise of cross-cultural attitudes toward health education and nutrition to describe some of the dangers we face today, such as food safety, contamination, and conservation issues.

Visiting Artist- Paul LaJeunesse

Artist and muralist Paul LaJeunesse will be at BHSU to talk about community mural projects he has led. His unique approach to creating a mural invites people of all ages and abilities to participate in designing and painting a mural, creating a truly collaborative work of art. Everyone is invited to Paul's lecture on his experiences with community art. Paul's presentation will also showcase an in-progress mural Paul will be working on with BHSU Fine Arts students. Please join us for this event on Tuesday, March 13 at 4:00PM in Club Buzz.

National Players present "Othello" by William Shakespeare

For the third straight year, the National Players Touring Theater visits The Matthews Opera House in Spearfish. Shakespeare "Othello" is performed at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Apr. 10. Tickets are $25 adults, $10 youth and BHSU students.

This classic tale of identity, bigotry, and deceit is examined with contemporary clarity, combining Shakespeare's language with modern clothing to transform the drama into a powerful story for America today.

Othello is a celebrated general returning home from the wars, but his dark skin and foreign origin inspire hatred from several people, especially the man he trusts most: Lago. As Lago twists Othello's love for his wife Desdemona, everyone becomes pawns in Lago's devious plots.

National Players present "Alice in Wonderland"

For the third straight year, the National Players Touring Theater visits The Matthews

Opera House in Spearfish. "Alice in Wonderland" is performed at 2 p.m., Sunday, Apr. 8. Tickets are $10 adults, $5 youth and BHSU students.

An Alice for our time: a precocious girl falls into a fantastic world of extravagant characters where little makes sense. In this 21st-century staging, cameras, projection, and puppets help tell the story of Alice's journey through Wonderland.

Family-friendly. Perfect afternoon's entertainment for all ages.
