Creative Writing Class Added for Fall

Exciting news! A new creative writing course has been added to fall 2018: ENGL 483: Advanced Creative Writing. In this course, we will focus on the elements of craft and major genre conventions in the first half of the semester. In the last half of the semester, you will work on a project of your choice, such as a collection of poetry, a novella, a graphic novel, or a collection of short stories, etc.

The course is being offered MWF from 10:00-10:50 a.m. Sign up on WebAdvisor or contact Dr. Huse Wika for more information: Courtney.HuseWika@BHSU.edu

Geek Speak: A Glimpse from Mongolia: Global Ideas on Health and Nutrition
Please join us on Thursday, March 15, at 4:00 p.m. in Jonas 110 C for our next Geek Speak featuring Dr. Jama Khainzan, Presidential Fellow, with "A Glimpse from Mongolia: Global Ideas on Health and Nutrition."

Dr. Khainzan is a public health education professional with extensive experience in nutrition and food safety education, and has used her expertise to develop policies and programs in Mongolia and internationally. At BHSU, Khainzan works with both the International relations and Global Engagement office and the President's office. In her Geek Speak, Khanizan will blend her expertise of cross-cultural attitudes toward health education and nutrition to describe some of the dangers we face today, such as food safety, contamination, and conservation issues.
