SD CEO names new director

The South Dakota Center for Enterprise Opportunity (SD CEO) at Black Hills State University, an award-winning nationally recognized Women's Business Center (WBC), announced today the hiring of Michelle Kane as its new director, following the planned retirement of its current director, Helen Merriman, in late October. SD CEO is the only women's business center in South Dakota, partially funded by the SBA, which provides services statewide and annually serves nearly 1500 participants.

Michelle will oversee the organization's continued mission to provide comprehensive business assistance, education, counseling, and training to current and prospective entrepreneurs from startups to expansion, and to foster economic and workforce development in South Dakota.

Prior to joining SD CEO, Michelle owned Black Hills PR, a public relations firm she launched in January 2011. Headquartered in Spearfish, Black Hills PR served local, regional and national clients with their public relations, social media management, and marketing strategy. As a sought-after speaker in the areas of entrepreneurship, digital strategy, and marketing, she also covered the region presenting and training at a wide range of conferences and workshops.

"Throughout my career, I've focused on staying up-to-date on marketing and technology trends while working alongside small business owners to help them reach their marketing goals, using best practices and a good dose of motivation," said Kane. "This passion and mission are exactly why I'm so excited to join the SD CEO team, where I'll drive continued success for entrepreneurs, small business owners and other professionals through training and counseling programs that founding director Helen Merriman, has so successfully created and grown."

WHEN?

Her latest album project showcases these influences and melds the classics with Jami's jazz originals. Filling out Jami's light but sultry vocals and electric guitar is upright bassist Andrew Reinartz, Joel Shotwell on sax, Jimmy Speirs, on trumpet, Jeremy Hegg, on keys, and special guests Ingrid Lane on violin and JD Fiedler on electric guitar.

The EP features the talents of Reinartz, Heier, and Paul along with Joel Shotwell on sax, Jim Speirs on Trumpet, and Dalton Coffey on dobro.

Furball Fundraiser

Do You Love Kittens?

The Furball (a masquerade/costume ball fundraiser) is in need of silent auction donations. This fundraiser will take place on Friday, October 20, from 6-9 pm at the Spearfish Holiday Inn and Convention Center; all proceeds will benefit the West River Spay/Neuter Coalition, which provides emergency medical services (plus vaccinations and spay/neutering) to feral kittens and cats in the hills. They also provide low-cost spay/neuter clinics for local pet owners. Last year, the event raised over $3200, due mostly to the amazing donations from students, faculty, and staff. Diverse donations are welcome: art work, services, gift cards and baskets, home items, food and coffee/wine/beer baskets, and so on. If you can help us provide support for this important nonprofit organization, please contact Katelyn.Woten@YellowJackets.BHSU.edu or Courtney.HuseWika@BHSU.edu. And please consider joining us on October 20! Tickets are $5 for students and $10 for community members.

Geek Speak: The Meaning of Everything

Join us Thursday October 5 at 4 pm in Jonas 110 as Professor Andrey Reznikov presents "The Meaning of Everything:" The Making of the Oxford English Dictionary. This year celebrates 160th anniversary of the beginning of what would become OED: a unique undertaking in the field of lexicography. The members of the Philological Society who first discussed the idea of a New English Dictionary in 1857 probably did not realize what they were getting themselves into. They believed the dictionary will be in 4 volumes and about 6,400 pages, and it will be ready in 10 years. They were wrong in all three estimates: the dictionary was ready in 70 years, it was in 10 volumes and had 15,490 pages. About 2,000 people contributed 5 million quotations to the editorial board; one of the most prolific contributors was American physician, Civil War veteran, Dr. W.C. Minor - who was sending his examples of quotations from a ward in a prison asylum.

All lectures are held in Jonas 110 at 4:00 p.m. on Thursdays and are free and open to the public.
