

TEACH ENGLISH ABROAD W/ ENGLISH FIRST

Promise Opens Doors is a non-profit organization which pioneered real-time online EFL instruction in 2004. We are proudly partnered with English First (www.englishfirst.com), a division of Education First, to share with you this highly sought-after opportunity to travel abroad and teach in a legitimate and well-recognized establishment.

Based in Boston, and founded in 1965, English First is one of 16 divisions of Education First. Focusing on language training, travel and above all, fun, EF- Education First has since grown into a successful company with over 40,000 employees, 500 schools and offices, and locations in 107 countries. EF- English First, a division of EF- Education First, started in China in 1994.

Teaching English in China with EF offers three different school types. After a year in one position there is an opportunity to transition into another teaching experience. Kids & Teens School – students age 3-18 years, separated into 4 age groups, with interactive touch screen tvs /white boards; Adult School – classes from complete beginner to upper advanced, students range from university undergraduates to professionals and Online Teaching Centre – a bright, spacious teaching center in Shanghai with 100 teachers offering 20 minute, 40 minute and private online lessons to the Chinese community.
