Bachelor of Science in Education (B.S.E.D.)

Taking Business To The Classroom

Earn a degree that will allow you to teach secondary business classes and develop your knowledge and interest in business. BHSU is a member of the National Association for Business Teacher Education (NABTE). Membership is open only to colleges and universities that offer business teacher education programs approved by their respective State Departments of Education for the certification of business teachers.

Prepare For Your Future

BHSU is the premier teacher preparation institution in the state of South Dakota and has an excellent Business Education program. The faculty has developed strong relationships with high school business educators in the area, guaranteeing the best experience in local internships and student teaching. The combination of these two specialties provide all students with a highly commendable portfolio and great qualifications.

Learn From The Best

Students are taught by an interdisciplinary team of accomplished faculty. We have faculty with experience in starting new business ventures, operating their own businesses, and holding upper level management positions in large corporations. This kind of practical experience brings a unique perspective to the classroom.

Enjoy The Experience

Develop leadership and team skills by joining one of BHSU's award-winning student organizations:

Buzz Marketing, Financial Management Association, Pre-Law Association, Society for Human Resource Management, Students In Free Enterprise, Travel and Tourism Club

find your career:

Do you want to earn a teaching degree but also have the opportunity to study business?

The School of Business and the School of Education at Black Hills State University have coordinated a program to facilitate both. You will have the chance to earn a degree that will allow you to teach secondary business classes and develop your knowledge and interest in business.
