Valentine's Singing Grams!

Do you want to serenade your Valentine? The BHSU Concert Choir is giving you the opportunity to share a special song with your Valentine! A small group will perform a very short love song to anyone of your choosing and give them a flower. (You do not get to choose the song.)

This will only take place on campus, so plan accordingly. We will sing these on Friday, Feb 12. A Singing Gram costs $10. Shoot us an email at bhsusinginggrams@gmail.com to discuss details. Include your name, your Valentine's name and class schedule, with professor's names, and we'll go from there. Don't miss out on this chance to make your Valentine's special!!

Be 1 of the 2%: Join the New Honors Program

The University Honors Program invites applications for its new competitive track emphasizing undergraduate research and creative activity. Students will complete two Honors colloquia, an Honors capstone project, and the capstone defense to graduate as a BHSU RESEARCH SCHOLAR. Spots are competitive and limited.

Apply by March 1 with an application portfolio consisting of an application essay, an unofficial transcript, a writing sample from your major/minor, and the name of a faculty sponsor. The essay should address why you wish to join the program and detail your current research/creative interests. Deliver to Meier Hall 311 or Dr. Huse Wika's mailbox in Jonas 108.

Questions? Contact Courtney.HuseWika@BHSU.edu or stop by Meier 311.

Snowshoe & X-C Ski "Try It" - All Invited

WHEN: Sunday, February 7th, from 1:00-3:00

WHERE: Meet at Big Hill Trailhead (8 miles south of the Wildlife Sanctuary on McGuigian/Tinton Road).

WHO: Faculty, Staff, Students, Family Members, Pets on Leashes,

WHY: Because getting outdoors in nature is fun, healthy, and cures cabin fever! Plus, there is free hot cocoa.

HOW: No pre-registration required. Just show up, check in with Chris at the trailhead, check out some gear and a map, and go give it a try. Some Outdoor Ed. students will be available to give tips or to take groups out if you are unfamiliar with the area. PLUS there'll be some hot cocoa at the trailhead. This is a low-key FREE event. We hope to see you up there!

Geek Speak: "I was real once," sighed Mr. Holmes

Join us on Thursday at 4:00 p.m. in Jonas 110 for Dr. Nikki Dragone's analysis of Sherlock Holmes.

What is it about Sherlock Holmes -- a fictional anti-hero of Victorian England -- that continues to command what Holmes' scholar Tom Keogh rather understatedly calls "continued cultural staying power" in the 128 years since Doyle introduced him to the world? That is what this Geek Speak seeks to explore.

Free and open to the public.

--Courtney Huse Wika - 2-1

Pete Lee Comedian

Have a laugh with Pete Lee February 4th at 7pm in Club Buzz. He has been on Late Show with David Letterman and Comedy Central! Free with Buzz Card or $5 for non-students.

Spearfish Jacket Zone Wins Contest

The Spearfish Jacket Zone was the winner of two play tickets at the Matthews Opera House. On January 9, 2016, MOH held a Scavenger Hunt and distributed clues to their mystery at 12 downtown locations. As folks brought in their answers to the mystery, they were also asked to vote for the business that they thought participated the most in the event. The Jacket Zone received the most votes. The store hid the clues throughout the store, and had the participants hunt for them, making it even more fun for everyone. Many of the participants had not visited the store before so this was a great way to bring them in and have them look around!! Thanks to all who participated and voted!!

BHSU NEWS RELEASES

BHSU students study wolves, wildlife during two-week course in Minnesota

Five Black Hills State University students and one alum spent two weeks in northern Minnesota this month, completing what they say was a "life-changing" experience through studying wildlife in their natural habitats.

The students enrolled in the Wolves and North Woods Carnivores: Predatory Ecology course at the Audubon Center of the Northern Hills in Sandstone, Minn., where they studied the ecology of grey wolves and other mammals in Northern Minnesota. In addition, students learned essential wildlife survival skills and physical and technological skills to track the wildlife.

BHSU will honor winners in marketing tagline contest

Black Hills State University will host an awards ceremony Thursday, Feb. 4 at 2 p.m. in the Joy (Proctor) Krautschun Alumni/Foundation Welcome Center to honor the student finalists in the "Where Anything is Possible" tagline contest.

BHSU professors developing international internship for exercise science majors

Black Hills State University professors Dr. Dan Jensen and Craig Triplett recently returned from a trip to China where they are developing a faculty-led internship course for BHSU exercise science students to work with Olympic athletes in Beijing.

BHSU sees record-breaking year for donations

For the fifth consecutive year, Black Hills State University reported a record-breaking fundraising year. BHSU University Advancement raised $10,207,920 by 2,516 donors in 2015, more than double the amount raised just two years ago.

BHSU professor to explore Sherlock Holmes in next Geek Speak #BelieveinSherlock

Internet has the power to connect people around the world. The same way kids love pop music and fashion trends and movie stars, they love characters from TV series and comic books - one of them being Sherlock Holmes.

Dr. Nikki Dragone, assistant professor of English at Black Hills State University, will explore in the next Geek Speak lecture why Sherlock Holmes -- a fictional anti-hero of Victorian England -- continues to command attention 128 years since Sir Arthur Conan Doyle introduced him to the world.

BHSU professor continues work on historic SD Supreme Court website

In 2015 Black Hills State University professor Dr. John Glover and a group of partners spearheaded The Judicial Voices Project, a collaborative effort to capture the history of the South Dakota Supreme Court.

In March, Glover, professor of American Indian studies at BHSU, along with others involved in the project, will unveil the work they have completed since The Judicial Voices Project's launch
