What is National TRIO Day? #6

Please join the SSS (Student Support Services) staff celebrate National TRIO Day on Monday, February 29. Students and staff will be available to speak with you about the TRIO program between 9am and 1pm. Faculty are especially encouraged to attend to learn more about ways that SSS can assist students in their classes who might be looking for assistance.

Kelly, a recent BHSU & SSS graduate shares her thoughts about SSS. "They have been a lifeline for me . . . SSS is an anchor to a positive and solid way of conquering every obstacle . . . because of their help I am following a dream to . . . work with kids that don't always get the best of their academic experience. I would never have been able to work with the Special Olympic athletes or been able to go to NCUR for my research project this last year if it would not have been for their encouragement. It was a remarkable experience that I will never forget. Their encouragement has brought me to a place I never thought I could get to."

Geek Speak!

Feb. 25 | 4pm | Jonas 110

Join us on Thursday for Dr. Amy Fuqua's Geek Speak, "Biblically Speaking: Sin and the Role of Women in the Christian New Testament."

A pregnant, young girl, sane but prone to visions, willing to travel by donkey in her 9th month, and to entertain guests both flamboyant and humble: this is the ideal woman as presented in founding Christian texts. Impossibly, she is both innocent and maternal. Some New Testament women succeed as minor versions of her. Lazarus's sisters, for example, prove their devotion. So does the mother of John the Baptist, Elizabeth. Perhaps the only New Testament woman as interesting as Mary is Mary Magdalene, who, despite having once suffered from demons, and despite her later reputation as a recovering prostitute, achieves the honor of being the first to see Jesus after his resurrection. Christian texts leave little middle ground between virgin and whore. Art and literature in the western tradition make that ground even smaller.

Be 1 of the 2%

Join the New Honors Program The University Honors Program invites applications for its new competitive program emphasizing undergraduate research and creative activity. Students will complete two Honors colloquia, an Honors capstone project, and the capstone defense to graduate as a BHSU RESEARCH SCHOLAR. Spots are competitive and limited. Apply by March 1 with an application portfolio consisting of an application essay, an unofficial transcript, a writing sample from your major/minor, and the name of a faculty sponsor. The essay should address why you wish to join the program and detail your current research/creative interests. Deliver to Meier Hall 311 or Dr. Huse Wika's mailbox in Jonas 108. Questions? Contact Courtney.HuseWika@BHSU.edu or stop by Meier 311.

What is National TRIO Day? #5

A national evaluation of SSS Programs determined that SSS participants were more likely to remain enrolled in higher education, accrue more college credits, and earn higher grade point averages than similar students who did not receive such services. SSS participants graduated with their bachelor's degree at a significantly higher rate (24 percentage points) than eligible students who did not use SSS services.

Kayleigh is in her 2nd year with SSS and states, "When I go to my advisor through the SSS program, I feel important. I don't feel like I am wasting someone's time and energy when I step in the office, and that is a good feeling. When I have a problem about anything from my schedule, to classes to financial aid, SSS can always direct me to the right people, and that is also a very helpful thing this program has to offer for students like me who don't know where to go or who to go to in certain situations."

Film Noir Series

Feb. 25 | 6:30pm | Jonas 305

BHSU continues The Big Read celebration of Dashiell Hammett's The Maltese Falcon by hosting their American film noir series. The film series is free and open to the public.

Join us for a classic from the 1940s film noir movement, "The Stranger" (1946).

The Big Read in Spearfish is presented in partnership with The Matthews, Grace Balloch Memorial Library, BHSU, Spearfish Zonta Club, South Dakota Arts Council, and Spearfish Foundation of Public Education.

"The film noir movement of the 1940s and 50s has had a huge influence on modern art, even beyond filmmaking. We are excited to share this piece of history with the people of our community and we are grateful to Black Hills State for helping make this event possible. The Big Read in Spearfish is really a "big" collaboration and we are pleased to be working with with so many outstanding groups." says Ava Sauter, Community Outreach Manager for The Matthews Opera House and Arts Center.

A program of the National Endowment for the Arts, The Big Read broadens our understanding of our world, our communities, and ourselves through the joy of sharing a good book. Managed by Arts Midwest, this initiative offers grants to support innovative community reading programs designed around a single book. Spearfish is one of 75 communities nationwide participating in The Big Read from September 2015-June 2016. From Jan. 2016-Mar. 2016, our community will celebrate Dashiell Hammett's The Maltese Falcon with a full calendar of events.
