Win a GoPro Camera!

Last year, BHSU student Bryce Boser's winning "Where Anything Is Possible" advertisement reached nearly 47,000 people during the Super Bowl. This year's game is expected to have an even larger viewership! One lucky winner will receive a GoPro Hero 4 Session! Get your piece of the action by entering this year's "Where Anything Is Possible Contest," where we're asking you to show us the endless opportunities at BHSU through a marketing campaign.

Learn more at www.BHSU.edu/Contest. Questions? Email Adam.Roosa@BHSU.edu. At BHSU, we believe that anything is possible!

Jan. 14 | 4pm | Jonas 110

Please join us this Thursday at 4:00 p.m. in Jonas 110 for Professor Ann Porter's lecture, "Stuffies, Sex and the Contemporary Counter-Reformation." This presentation will use visual images to investigate the idea of a contemporary Counter-Reformation. Like the Counter-Reformation initiated by the Catholic church to guard against the perceived heresy of Protestantism, so the cultural conservatism of the 1950's, when challenged by the explorations of the 1960's, created a conservative backlash that is still with us today. Examples of this phenomenon will range from Lassie, Barbie and Willem de Kooning to Hello Kitty, Mike Kelly and Furry Conventions.
