Bill Due - Review Your Account

Jan. 21

Welcome to the spring 2016 semester! Hope your classes are going well. Just a reminder to go out and Web Advisor/SDePay/Current Activity to make sure your bill is paid in full.

For those that may have received a refund of excess financial aid: if you have made any changes to classes, or other charges, make sure you check Current Activity -- while your refund was being processed your cost difference may not be reflected in your refund, you may now owe. Upon still owing, make sure you take care of the bill by January 21st, you can pay by:

1. signing up for the monthly payment plan, www.bhsu.edu/payforcollege, or if questions, call 605- 642-6480.
2. paying with cash or check at the cashiers' windows on 1st floor Woodbury
3. going on-line and paying with credit card (2.75% fee) 4) going on-line and paying with e-check (no fee)

4. completing financial aid paperwork so aid will pay on your bill by the 20th (aid is applied to student's bills on Wednesdays and Fridays)

If aid is not showing as "paid" on your Current Activity, or there is not any aid as of yet, make sure you stop by Student Financial Services to visit/call with them (or BHSU-Rapid City) prior to the 21st.

Geek Speak is Back!

Jan. 14 | 4pm | Jonas 110

Please join us this Thursday at 4:00 p.m. in Jonas 110 for Professor Ann Porter's lecture, "Stuffies, Sex and the Contemporary Counter-Reformation." This presentation will use visual images to investigate the idea of a contemporary Counter-Reformation. Like the Counter-Reformation initiated by the Catholic church to guard against the perceived heresy of Protestantism, so the cultural conservatism of the 1950's, when challenged by the explorations of the 1960's, created a conservative backlash that is still with us today. Examples of this phenomenon will range from Lassie, Barbie and Willem de Kooning to Hello Kitty, Mike Kelly and Furry Conventions.
