Food Plans and Food Flex Dollars
- Freshmen living on campus or upperclassmen living in residence halls are required to be on a meal plan.
- You will need your Buzz Card to gain access to the meal plans and your dining dollars.
- Just present your card and eat.
- All meal plans come with Food Flex Dollars that can be used in addition to your meal plan at no extra charge.
- Food Flex Dollars cannot be used for off-campus merchants or vending machines.
- Board plans are for a fixed number of meals per semester.
- Board meals can be used as meal equivalency for purchases in Jacket Java, the Buzz Shack, or Club Buzz.

Just present your card at the Hive, the Buzz Shack, or Club Buzz in the Student Union or Jacket Java in the library and deduct your purchases from your Buzz Bucks Card.

- Food Flex Dollars can only be used at A’viands Dining Service locations - the Hive, the Buzz Shack, Club Buzz and Jacket Java.
- They cannot be used at the University Bookstore, to do laundry, or to purchase from vending machines.
- Food Flex Dollars are in a separate account on your Buzz Card.
- When making a purchase at an A’viands Dining Service location, the system uses Food Flex Dollars first before using your personal Buzz Bucks.
