Bridging Generations
-A workforce development workshop-

Tuesday, April 5, 8-9:30 am
Doors open 7:30 a.m. for breakfast; program begins 8 a.m.

Slate Creek Grille-Hill City
158 Museum Drive-street parking available

Register online: www.BHSU.edu/SDCEO or 605-642-6435
Registration deadline: April 3
Cost: $25 (includes breakfast)

With five generations in the workplace this workshop will help you:

• Gain perspectives of different generations
• Identify motivations & needs of different age groups
• Discover tips for communicating across the generations
• Learn how to resolve conflict among employees
• Talk through real issues facing employers

Presented by Leah Braun, Harney Business Group

Harney Business Group provides powerful, customized consulting, training and coaching to small and medium sized businesses and organizations to help them reach the next level.

Leah Braun, Principal of Harney Business Group, leads successful coaching and training sessions throughout the Black Hills area.

Braun retired at the rank of Master Sergeant after 22 years of military service, where Leah began to hone her passion for working with people and helping groups get to the next level. While in the military, Leah earned a teaching degree and an MS in administrative studies with an emphasis in counseling. Leah is a Certified Professional Coach, credentialed through the International Coach Federation.