Public Trust. Personal Success.

As one of the nation’s premier financial regulatory agencies, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) offers unlimited opportunities for career advancement. Our mission is to maintain stability and public confidence in the U.S. financial system by insuring deposits, examining and supervising financial institutions, and managing receiverships. FDIC employees combine in-depth expertise on finance and banking operations with a commitment to public service. The FDIC is recognized as an employer of choice because of the importance of its mission and its outstanding pay and benefits, employee training and development opportunities, commitment to diversity, and work-life balance.

Financial Institution Specialist

Position Title: Financial Institution Specialist (Trainee) – (Division of Risk Management Supervision)

Locations: Approximately 150 positions to be filled annually at multiple locations. Locally positions are open in Fargo, ND; Minneapolis, MN; Des Moines, IA; Cedar Rapids, IA; and Omaha; NE.; Denver, CO

Duration: Three to four-year training program leading to professional certification

Compensation: Starting salaries range from $53,340 to $73,140 per annum, depending on location, with regular salary increases and an excellent vacation and benefits package.

Position Description: This is an entry-level trainee position with the FDIC, one of the nation's premier bank regulatory agencies. Financial Institution Specialist (FIS) positions are located at 85 FDIC office locations throughout the U.S. Successful applicants are placed in a 3-4 year training program leading to professional certification as a commissioned Financial Institution Examiner or Resolutions and Receivership Specialist. The program includes both formal classroom and on-the-job training, and every participant is assigned an individual coach or mentor. Participants receive regular grade and pay increases during the program as they complete established training benchmarks.

FISs typically work in teams and often must travel extensively to conduct on-site exams or close failed banks. They assess financial institutions to determine whether the institutions are following safe and sound banking practices, maintaining effective internal controls and procedures, managing their institutions effectively, and complying with all applicable laws and regulations. FIS also gain experience analyzing loan and investment portfolio credit quality as well as assessing financial institution accounting practices and audit programs. The FDIC seeks applicants with strong analytical and quantitative skills, knowledge of the basic principles of accounting and finance, the ability to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing, the ability to work both independently and in teams, and an interest in public service.

Minimum Educational and Other Requirements:

1. U. S. citizenship.
2. Completion of an undergraduate or graduate degree at an accredited college or university with a major in business administration, banking, finance, economics, accounting, marketing, or a related field (including mathematics and statistics) within 2 years* of the date of application or by June 30, 2020; and fulfillment of specified requirements for Superior Academic Achievement as an undergraduate or completion of at least one year of study at the graduate level.

*Preference eligible veterans who are precluded from applying to the Recent Graduates program during their 2-year eligibility period due to military service obligations will have their eligibility period extended to apply for open positions upon release/discharge.

3. Completion of at least 24 semester hours (or equivalent) of undergraduate and/or graduate coursework in economics, accounting, finance, business administration, mathematics, statistics, or marketing, including at least 6 semester hours (or equivalent) of accounting coursework, at an accredited college or university.

4. Successful completion of an automated writing assessment, which is provided to applicants after the application period closes.

How to Apply: If you are interested, apply at the following website by September 27th:

https://www.usajobs.gov/GetJob/ViewDetails/544289300

The best qualified applicants will be invited to Washington, DC, for interviews at FDIC expense during the week of November 13 to15th, 2019.

For More Information: Please contact Jess Burchill at (605) 228-3254 or jburchill@fdic.gov. You can also contact our hiring hotline at (703) 562-2207 or CEPHRB@FDIC.GOV.

www.fdic.gov/about/jobs

FDIC is an equal opportunity employer. Applications are considered without regard to race, color, age, religion, gender, national origin, physical disability or any other non-merit factor.
You can also apply using the following QR code:

RISE TO THE CHALLENGE.

Become an examiner in FDIC’s Division of Risk Management Supervision (RMS). Evaluate the financial condition and risk management practices of insured institutions.

YOUR PRIVATE INVITATION TO APPLY IS AVAILABLE THROUGH THIS EXCLUSIVE LINK:

https://www.fdic.gov/about/jobs/RiskManagement.html