Opportunity Details

Business, Company, Organization Name: Jean Wallerstein
Company Description: I would like a responsible student to vacuum my carpets and mop my floors and occasional dusting. My house is about 2000 square feet with carpet on the stairs. I have two cats but no children! I have all the cleaning items and will buy more as you need them. The reason I need this is that I have severe back pain which is exacerbated by doing these chores.

Opportunity Offering: Part-time/Seasonal Job
Work Study Options:
The opportunity will take place in?: My house
Start Date: 11/4/2019
End Date: 6/30/2020
Weekly Hours: approximately two hours every other week
Hourly Wage: $20 per hour
What does the opportunity provide?: Being on time as able or calling to cancel within 24 hours, following directions, responsible with equipment and home accessories. This may lead to extra hours including more light cleaning.

What are the characteristics of a qualified candidate?: I need someone who is used to vacuuming, mopping tile and wooden floors, someone who is able to show up every two weeks. The time of day can be flexible even week to week if the candidate has finals or vacation. I would prefer someone who isn't allergic to cats. I don't wear perfume but some of the chemicals may have some noxious smells. I will not hire a smoker.

What skills are needed to be successful?: I need someone to be in good physical shape and someone who can be responsible. If you aren't able to come as scheduled, you must call within 24 hours to reschedule. Attention to detail is helpful.

Application Process:
We can talk on the phone and arrange a time for a trial cleaning in which you would be paid. If I am satisfied with your work, then you will get the job.
Application Deadline: 11/8/2019
