Take your interest in international studies to the next level with a study abroad experience.

Whether you are looking to fulfill your global studies course requirements or gain firsthand insight into the political or economic climate of your host country, pursuing a study abroad experience is a great option for international studies students. Your classroom learning will be enhanced by real-life observations of life under different political, economic, and social systems, allowing you to apply what you learn in your courses to day-to-day life in your host community. Pursuing language courses abroad also helps you become more effective at cross-cultural communication. Being able to engage respectfully with people from different cultural, religious, and political backgrounds is a valued skill in a range of different career fields.

Are you looking for specific courses? Reach out to us and we can help you find the program that meets your academic goals and course needs.
